WITH A SPRING IN HIS STEP THE 'WORLD'S SMALLEST CHEF' HAS TREKKED TO THE NATIONS CAPITAL, PRETORIA – September 2023

After a grand triumph in the hotels of Johannesburg, Cape Town and uMhlanga, Le Petit Chef is set to debut in Pretoria – a first he has been waiting for, for a long time!

DinnerTimeStoriesSA with Le Petit Chef Southern Africa is a mind blowing, innovative, unique, internationally acclaimed, gastronomic experience full of 'Never To Be Forgotten' tabletop projected fun and surprises. The mood, music, table patterns, props and decoration all change with the chapters of the story promising to immerse you in the most eye catching 'meal' you will ever see – guaranteed!*

The 'smallest chef in the world' invites Northern-Gautengers to partake in a culinary adventure accompanied by 3D world travel and a six-course gastronomical extravaganza that will make Pretoria famous for more than the purple jewelled Jacaranda lined streets – official launch on 28 September 2023.

Le Petit Chef is making his grand entrance, promising a monumental surprise, at the middle eastern themed Royal Elephant Hotel and Conference Centre (that almost feels like it was built for the show - the perfect balance between silk, spice and all things nice, sophistication with a wild edge) to take up the journey of Marco Polo once again with those fans who have not yet had the experience in their very own city. At your place setting, this tiny chef will create a union (unlike any Pretoria has experienced before) between eyes, nose, and palate to create 'Instagramable' wonders you never thought could be unified upon a single plate.

We are excited to announce that the spontaneous, nomadic and world's smallest chef has hung around Southern Africa long enough to share his gourmet adventure, designed from his experiences along the Silk Route of Asia. You are invited to immerse yourself in a 3D, high definition, projected extravaganza that allows you to travel through the big, exciting and flavourful world of the intrepid explorer Marco Polo!

The spectacular international show – 'Le Petit Chef : In The Footsteps of Marco Polo' is accompanied by an awe-inspiring and mouth-watering six course dinner, infused with the essence of each country traversed. Best of all – bookings for this limited run are officially open for the launch date of 28 September 2023.

As the evening opens you are given a complimentary snap, crackle, and pop with a side of gin, an inspired, worldly beverage adorned with the trimmings of an experienced world traveller. Diners are given the option of iconic Old Road wine-pairing done to complement the dishes served – a wine for each course and country that showcases dining harmony between food and drink, the likes of which you have never experienced.

The menu remains shrouded in mystery but sit back and allow Executive Chef Anel Louw and Sous Chef Bongani Tshuma (together with the tiny Chef) and his team of culinary magicians, to delight every tastebud no matter your dietary needs – vegetarian, vegan, gluten free, halaal-and-Kosher friendly. Your authentic culinary voyage begins as you journey through the Asian continent through the desert sands of Arabia, the dripping colours of India, the peaks of the Himalayas, the heavy mists of China, returning to the point of origin in the romantic cobbled streets of Marseilles, France.

“Here, fun-dining takes on a new meaning in South Africa’s Purple City as I assemble a culinary delight fit for royalty” declares Le Petit Chef.

Pretoria - Centurion special holiday shows have the option to include live Arabian belly and fire dancing, with Bollywood and Chinese LED, which will transport you to each Silk Route country sans passport.

Le Petit Chef as an individual, and as an event, understands the power of those things small, so, while the gourmet dining theatre hosts 44 seats per show, the entertainment remains top-notch, and your tastebuds are awakened as never before.

Le Petit Chef and DinnerTimeStoriesSA, is the product of a few of the most talented and entertainment-industry leading minds: Filip Sterckx and Antoon Verbeeck of Skullmapping fame and brought to Southern Africa for your enjoyment by Paul Rouessart the South African international show producer and owner of 100% EVENT.

“Le Petit Chef is a culinary theatre experience that transforms the simple plate into a world stage. At the hands of the world’s tiniest chef, gastronomy and technology come together to entrance the senses and take dining out to the ‘next-level’. This animated 3D performance is a global phenomenon that brings the very best of cuisine and entertainment to your seat at the table and should not be missed!” says Rouessart.

Le Petit Chef is celebrating his Pretoria debut with an early-bird launch special of R1295.00 per person, thereafter increasing to R1395.00. Wine pairing (booked through Computicket): R395.00 pp. Wine pairing (purchased @ hotel): R425.00 pp

Child-friendly shows are scheduled for Sunday lunches with all other shows strictly for children over the age of 12 years.

Le Petit Chef is eager and able to accommodate corporate bookings within specific times reserved for such purposes. Additional entertainment can easily be incorporated, as well as personalised branding.

“Le Petit Chef has finally made his way to Pretoria, and The Royal Elephant Hotel is delighted to host this tiny culinary maverick. We feel that our hotel embodies the essence of Marco Polo’s journey along the Silk Route with its ambiance, décor, and royal Arabian motifs. This is a mind-blowing dining experience that you can add to your list of reasons to come and visit the Purple City. We cannot wait to see you!” says Gert van Wyk Managing Director, The Royal Elephant Hotel and Conference Centre, Pretoria.

Remember that Le Petit Chef never stays in one place too long and is in the Pretoria area for a limited time only! Book your ticket NOW to avoid disappointment.

His culinary stories are meticulously crafted as an occasion to be remembered ... Le Petit Chef is for adventurers who reject monotony and embrace the gourmet, so bring a friend and make a memory for life.

Get into the mix and tune into Mix FM (93.8) for more details. RESERVE your bragging rights: book early on Computicket and follow the social media links for the Instaworthy snaps of all the Pretoria smiles that Le Petit Chef is sure to bring.
